From 6 April 2016 companies must keep a register of individuals or legal entities that have control over them. This is in addition to keeping other information, such as a register of members and a register of directors.

From 30 June 2016 onwards companies will have to deliver this information annually to the central public register at Companies House when making a Confirmation Statement.

The requirements to keep a PSC register are set out in Part 21A of the Companies Act 2006 (as inserted by the Small Business Enterprise and Employment Act 2015) and apply to UK incorporated companies limited by shares, companies limited by guarantee, unlimited companies and Societates Europaeae.

Companies must take reasonable steps to find out if there are people who have significant control over the company;
- PSCs are people who meet one or more of the five conditions:

1. Directly or indirectly holding more than 25% of the shares,
2. Directly or indirectly holding more than 25% of the voting rights,
3. Directly or indirectly holding the right to appoint or remove a majority of directors,
4. Otherwise having the right to exercise, or actually exercising, significant influence or control,
5. Having the right to exercise, or actually exercising, significant influence or control over the activities of a trust or firm which is not a legal entity, but would itself satisfy any of the first four conditions if it were an individual.

The company should contact these people, or others who might know them, to confirm whether they meet one or more of the conditions and, if they do, get the relevant information to be entered onto the company's PSC register;

I have examined the Academy Funding Agreement, Memorandum of Association and Articles of Association. I have reviewed the composition, members and trustees and have determined that there are no individuals or legal entities which meet any of the conditions for registration in relation to the Trust.

On the basis of this assessment I make the following statement:

"The company, The White Hills Park Trust, registration number 08195720, knows or has reasonable cause to believe that there is no registrable relevant legal entity in relation to the company".
